Following the success of 2010 this year's annual fete will again be a joint effort between Spooner Row primary school and Spooner Row Hall committee. Money raised by both parties will be used to improve their facilities.

The Village fete is a great place to meet new villagers, "mardle" with friends and be part of a great village tradition. The village meadow and hall will be decked out in bunting for the fete on Sunday 3 July from 2-5pm. Come along to a fun afternoon. There will be Craft stalls Games Competitions Dancing display Local Choirs Exhibitions of Art & Photography Car boot sale Delicious refreshments-including local ice cream, teas and homemade Pastries & cakes.

Parking for the fete is next to the village primary school off Station road.

AGM minutes available on hall notice boards
